

CO State Medical Licensure Application Instructions

1. Program Coordinators (PC) must confirm with their Program Director (PD) what type of license is required and who is responsible for the cost. Every resident must have either an active ($412), or a Physician Training License ($10) by their start date in the program. Processing time for training licenses takes 8-10 weeks.
2. PCs must inform their residents which license is required and refer them to the Colorado Medical Board (CMB) website https://www.colorado.gov/dora/Medical_Board.
3. Applications are completed online. Residents can refer to the Training License Checklist or the Colorado Medical License Checklist.
4. Confirmation of licensure including wallet cards will be e-mailed to Residents from the Department of Regulatory Agencies: no-reply@www.colorado.gov.
5. For Residents applying for Physician Training Licenses, PCs should send one signed letter on program letter head (see template Pg.3) from the PD stating that s/he is responsible for the supervision of new residents with training licenses. This letter will satisfy the CMB requirement for a Program Statement Form for each resident.
6. If the resident applies for a full Colorado Medical License while still residing in a state other than Colorado, the resident must indicate Exception D on the application attesting that,

I currently reside outside of Colorado, and claim exemption D set forth in the attached rule. I understand that before I engage in any medical practice in Colorado, I must obtain the required insurance or an acceptable equivalent. SECURITY OF PATIENT MEDICAL RECORDS – By checking this box, I attest that I have developed a written plan to ensure the security of patient medical records in compliance with C.R.S. 12-36-140.

- Resident should check this box even though they do not develop written security plans. Security plans are developed by the affiliated hospitals.
- If the resident is a current CU trainee (with an active training license) and applying for a full Colorado Medical License, they should not claim Exemption D, but rather provide proof of malpractice coverage. Proof of university malpractice coverage must be sent to the CMB by the PC, they will not accept the letter directly from the resident. The malpractice letter can be accessed by PCs in MedHub in the trainee's record by selecting Forms/Files > GME Misc > Malpractice Confirmation (choose the most recent letter if there is more than one).

7. If Residents answer yes to any of the self-screening questions their application will be flagged for review by the board. For applications flagged for review, an evaluation and clearance by the Colorado Physicians Health Program (CPHP) is highly likely to be required.
 - Any resident who answers yes to the self-screening questions, should self-refer to CPHP for an evaluation, indicating they are an incoming CU GME resident and need the first available appointment. GME covers the costs of the CPHP evaluation. GME does not cover the costs of CPHP referrals or treatment plans.
8. DORA may ask for the resident applying for a full medical license to submit a request for “Disciplinary Action Report.” On the Federation of State Medical Boards (FSMB) website, you can find this by “submitting a Physician Data Center (PDC) profile request.”
9. PCs must send Donna Bame (contact info below) a roster of resident names who are applying for a training license as this will make it easier for her to track the applications.
10. PCs must confirm that the resident has obtained a license before the start of training and enter the information into MedHub under the Resident Demographics – Certifications.
11. For Continuing Residents with Training Licenses – Training Licenses must be renewed after the first 3 years. Resident should receive notice from CMB, however the PC is ultimately responsible for ensuring the resident has current license.
12. For Transferring Residents – If the new program allows the resident to have a training license, the resident still needs to apply for a new license as a different PD is now responsible for their supervision and training. If the transferring resident already has existing active training license, they will not be able to complete online application and must complete the paper application.
