

FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS
PROGRAM OVERVIEW

As the only commercial music program in the Rocky Mountain region, CU Denver offers an accredited music bachelor's degree that prepares undergraduates to work as professional musicians. Since we do not follow the traditional conservatory model, our program allows for great flexibility in career exploration. Upon graduation, our students will be the complete musician, with strong skills in entrepreneurship, a background in audio production and music business, as well as the fundamentals to make a living as a professional musician, recording artist, and private instructor. Our program is particularly well-suited for guitarists, bassists, vocalists, pianists, and percussionists/drummers who have a strong interest in jazz and commercial music. Further, our program includes a singer/songwriter component, which makes us ideal for students interested in creating their own original content. Note that our program does not focus on training in classical music, musical theatre, or opera.

More informal than a conservatory program, our program lends itself to a more supportive community. Students network heavily outside the classroom with their fellow students and, because of our urban location, the local community music scene. Our faculty are highly accessible, leading to strong mentorship.

COURSEWORK THAT CAN BE COMPLETED AT PREVIOUS INSTITUTION

The following is a "bucket" of requirements students can complete prior to transferring to CU Denver, including equivalent Colorado Community College System (CCCS) courses. To determine the equivalencies of courses to be completed at non-CU Denver institutions, students can visit www.transferology.com. It is critical students connect with a CU Denver academic advisor to ensure planned courses will transfer and apply to CU Denver degree requirements. All non-CU Denver coursework must be completed with a C- or better to be eligible for transfer.

Students interested in completing an Associate (A.A. or A.S.) Degree or a Colorado Statewide Transfer Articulation Agreement or Degree with Designation \(DWD\) must work with their community/junior college academic advisor to create an academic plan that accounts for all degree or transfer articulation agreement requirements. Colorado Community College Students may also explore the option to complete Reverse Transfer at CU Denver.
